MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, Office of Strategic Research

SUBJECT: Info for Senate Subcommittee on National Security and International Operations, of the Government Operations Committee

1. This morning Richard Perle, of the Subcommittee staff, came out for a briefing on verification by Carl Duckett. In departing, he raised the question of the cost of certain possible Soviet force changes and left with us the following questions which, at Carl's suggestion, we are referring to you.

2. For each of the Soviet force changes listed below what is our estimate of:

a. Cost of carrying out R&D.

b. Deployment schedule (from completion of R&D to first operational site and from first operational site to full deployment (existing force numbers)).

c. Earliest likely visibility of deployment.
